Dallas Arboretum Presents Easter Weekend Activities

Attendees invited to break Guinness World Record for Bunny Hop on April 20

DALLAS, Texas, Spring 2019 – To celebrate the Easter holiday, the Dallas Arboretum and Botanical Garden features exciting activities including live music, free beer samples, festive treats, children's activities and a garden full of floral backdrops perfect for photos from April 19 to April 21.

Alan Walne, Dallas Arboretum board chairman, said, "Don't miss the opportunity to help us break the Guinness World Record for the largest bunny hop in the garden on Saturday, April 20. At 12 noon in Jonsson Color Garden, WFAA Good Morning Texas reporter and producer, Paige McCoy-Smith, and the Easter Bunny lead guests to attempt to break the world record, so we invite you to join us." Guests of all ages are welcome to participate, and the event is free with paid garden admission.

Attendees can celebrate all three days with the following:

- Children's activities include face painting and a petting zoo in Pecan Grove.
- Concerts with Eddie Coker are held at the Martin Rutchik Concert Stage and Lawn on April 19 at 11 a.m. and 2 p.m.
- Rory Meyers Children's Adventure Garden's Plant Lab: Dye Easter eggs and conduct egg experiments, 11 a.m.-3 p.m. on the hour, April 12-14 and April 19-21.

Mary Brinegar, Dallas Arboretum president, said, "Families have made visiting the garden on Easter weekend a tradition because the garden is bursting with spring blooms, and it's one of the most glorious moments in the garden to take pictures with family and friends. The first few weeks of April are bursting with color and feature spring blooms like petunias, salvia, sunpatiens, foxgloves, African daises and more."
