Dallas Arboretum's Cool Thursdays Spring Concert Series
Kicks Off with Hotter Than July, Stevie Wonder Tribute Band, on April 2

Cool Thursday single tickets go on sale February 15

DALLAS, Texas -The premier concert series "Cool Thursdays Concert Series" at the Dallas Arboretum, presented by Wells Fargo Bank, returns Thursday, April 2 for its spring/summer series featuring Hotter Than July. Single tickets go on sale February 15. Don't miss the chance to attend Dallas' favorite concert series overlooking the picturesque White Rock Lake on the award-winning Martin Rutchik Concert Stage and Lawn.

Kristi Trail, Dallas Arboretum's director of public events, said, "Spring concert subscriptions sold out in 2019, and once single tickets go on sale, concerts sell out fast. Don't miss the opportunity to see some of DFW's favorite bands perform in one of the most beautiful places in Dallas."

Hotter Than July, sponsored by Marsh & McLennon Agency, kicks off the 2020 concert series on April 2. Hotter Than July is a high energy, soulful group of talented and experienced musicians. Led by professional musician Gerry Williams, an unbounded vocalist and percussionist who brings funk on the keys, brings groove and an unforgettable performance audiences can't help but dance to.

In addition to the coolest view of White Rock Lake, attendees can bring picnics and beverages or purchase food items from some of DFW's favorite food trucks. The gardens are open to stroll through before the concert to enjoy the breathtaking spring displays of Dallas Blooms, featuring more than 500,000 spring blooming bulbs. The concert series
