Emcee – Alicia Barrera – NBC 5 / Telemundo 39

Alicia Barrera joined NBC 5 in December 2022 as a general assignments reporter for NBC 5 and Telemundo 39.

Alicia is a first-generation Mexican-American fluent in both Spanish and English. She was born in East Dallas, raised in Coppell and spent holidays with her family in San Luis Potosí, Mexico.

Before joining NBC 5, she reported and anchored in San Antonio for KSAT 12 News. During her four years in the Alamo City, Alicia reported on stories that centered around the Hispanic, Latino and Chicano communities. Prior to her time in San Antonio, she worked as a Spanish-language multimedia journalist in the Rio Grande Valley for Telemundo 40. Her work along the Texas-Mexico border earned Alicia several Lone Star Emmy awards. Her efforts focused on the immigration crisis, influx of unaccompanied minors, visits from senior White House Officials and the effect of immigration and militarization of the border in local communities.

She also covered high-profile cases including of John Feit, the former priest convicted of murdering a local schoolteacher.

Alicia got her start in news as a graphics editor and multimedia journalist for Telemundo 60 in San Antonio in 2015 while completing her bachelor's degree. She graduated from Our Lady of the Lake University in San Antonio with a bachelor's in mass communications journalism and a minor in Spanish.

Some Dallas individuals and families impacted by HIV/AIDS aren't really living. They're homeless, hurting, and barely surviving. As we celebrate Hispanic Heritage Month, we're reminded of the strength, resilience, and rich traditions of our Latino community—values that inspire the work we do every day. For 38 years, ASD – A HOME FOR LIFE provides a safe place to call home, provides meals, healthcare and a chance at a new life.

We need your support to keep their hopes alive.
